

Col. C. A. Ellis, was accepted this morning for service in the South-West.

THE ACCEPTANCE OF CAVALRY.

Col. Ellis has been dancing attendance on the Administration since May, but cavalry was considered too expensive an arm of the service. Bull's Run opens eyes.

CONGRESSMAN ELY STILL MISSING.

Congressman Ely is not yet to be found.

POSITION OF OUR TROOPS.

There is no truth in the report that Federal troops occupy Fairfax Court-House. Our lines do not extend beyond Falls Church. There are small bodies of Rebels at and near Fairfax.

THE FLAG OF TRUCE BY MAJOR WADSWORTH.

Maj. Wadsworth has returned with his flag of truce, with what result is not yet known.

SECRETARY CAMERON INDICATED.

Mr. Moses H. Grinnell does Secretary Cameron great injustice when he places upon the responsibility of refusing regiments of mounted men. We have pretty good reason for knowing that Secretary Cameron has accepted regiments that have been refused by Gen. Scott, who, with his peculiar iteration of manner replied, "I don't want any cavalry, Sir; I don't want any cavalry, Sir. My plan of campaign doesn't require cavalry, Sir." It is but justice to the President and Cabinet that the country should know that Gen. Scott has had full control of all the war movements, and also organized the columns, appointed the officers, and selected the time and points of attack at Bull's Run.

FULL AND PERFECT LIST OF THE KILLED AND WOUNDED IN THE SEVENTY-FIRST REGIMENT, N. Y. S. M.

The unjoined list of the casualties to this corps in the battle of Bull's Run, is compiled from the official lists and from the statements of the men, and is the only correct list published. The 71st start for New-York on Thursday, July 25:

WADSWORTH CORPS, KILLED-NONE. Wounded and with the regiment supposed to have been taken prisoner, are: William M. G. ...
